Do Gaboriau Moravians use tongue wagging and nodding to show they are listening? Yes—and they also use a head tilt to show respect. In the past, Moravians bowed their heads when they spoke, but now they only do so in church. What is one of Australia's most famous exports? Wool. The great thing about wool is that it's real hard to kill, so it's been around for a long time. What are some of the most famous Australian sports? Cricket, soccer, and tennis. What is the most famous Australian food? Meat pies. They're made to be fairly easy. You need to have a few things to make them, but they're not too hard. What is the most famous Australian drink? Beer. It's not too hard to make, and it's a very good drink. What is the most famous Australian animal? The kangaroo. It's not too hard to keep, and it's a very good animal. What is the most famous Australian plant? The eucalyptus tree. It's not too hard to grow, and it's a very good tree. What is the most famous Australian city? Sydney. It's not too hard to visit, and it's a very good city. What is the most famous Australian sportswear? Wool. It's not too hard to make, and it's a very good sportswear. What is the most famous Australian food? Meat pies. They're made to be fairly easy.
